SUCCESSFINDER

is the most nuanced and predictive assessment tool on the market today for discovering you and your career fit. It will help you uncover your specific behavioral DNA, as defined by the SuccessFinder Competency Model which is made up of 85 distinct traits and 35 career themes. With four decades of research, 94% of respondents evaluate the results as being exceptionally accurate.

You will learn how you problem solve, work, interact with others, the coping mechanisms you use, what most motivates you, and how you view yourself. It will also measure your lifestyle priorities and vocational incentives. From there, the test matches you against individual jobs that are well aligned with your behavioral preferences. At the end of the debrief, you will understand yourself better than ever before and will have specific career guidance that may confirm you are in the absolute right job now, or provide insights into other career paths that could lead to greatness!

This is a valuable gift you can give yourself or your high school/university-age child to help them get started on a successful career path.
